The Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Allen:

Please forgive me for the unconscionably long time I have been in answering your letter of March 21. The fact, however, is that while I have seen his brothers several times in the interim, I did not run into [] until the day before yesterday.

I mentioned to him that you had spoken to me in Washington about your correspondence, but did not tell him I had seen the correspondence. He seemed very pleased about it however.

My heartiest congratulations to you on the result of the Senate hearing and Senator Fulbright's excellent statement.

Nancy and I are still hoping that you and Clover will come over and lunch or dine with us and spend the night some day at your earliest convenience.

With love to Clover,

Ever sincerely,

Francis White
